¡Bienvenidos!

I would like to extend a pleasant welcome to everyone that takes part in our Parks and Recreation Department activities and programs.

As part of a distinctive and treasured cultural history, our community continues to celebrate our diversity and special offerings for residents and visitors. Among the exceptional offerings are the programs and facilities provided by our Parks and Recreation Department. The City of Santa Fe has a little something for all of us; from swimming, ice-skating, yoga, dancing, art, fitness, golf, summer camps, to local softball, soccer and rugby leagues.

I encourage you to look through this Fall 2004/Spring 2005 Activity Guide and see what we have to offer you. Enjoy the fall and spring in our parks and facilities with family and friends. Be safe and continue to pray for moisture to help keep our parks vibrant for all to enjoy now and in the future.

My family and I look forward to seeing you at our Parks and Recreation Department programs and facilities throughout the year.

¡Con cariño!

Learn to Skate Classes

Add to your enjoyment of New Mexico's newest and finest skating facility by improving your skills or learning to skate for the very first time. The United States Figure Skating Basic Skills program will be taught.

Fee / Schedules / Class Descriptions

FEE: $65 (Includes six 30-minute lessons, once per week, 30 minutes of supervised practice, rental skates, USFS Registration Fee and two free public skate pass for the six week session). The first two weeks will start with a 30-minute lesson followed by a 30 minute supervised practice. The remaining classes will begin with a 15 minute practice then the lesson then another 15 minute practice. Both Stroking/Interpretive and Moves in the Field/Footwork classes are only 30 minute classes, are $40 for the six week session and do not include a supervised practice. The levels are as follows:

Parent/Tot

This Program is designed to teach the parent to instruct their child in the basic skills of skating. Group lessons will focus on sitting and standing up with skates on (off and on ice), stopping, forward and backward skating. This is a great opportunity for parents and tots to socialize with people of similar interests while spending quality time together. Class fee includes both parent and tot lessons.

Snowplow Sam

This section of the Skate With U.S. Program was designed to help children ages 4 - 5 develop preliminary coordination and strength necessary to maneuver on skates. Some of the elements in this section are the same as those in the Basic Eights, but the degree to which the skater is expected to perform the elements is to a much lesser extent. A few children in this age group may be prepared to begin at the Basic 1 level. Time with Snowplow Sam will allow preschool children to become comfortable on ice commensurate with their physical development.

The Basic Eights 1-8

The Basic Eights are designed to introduce beginning students to the fundamentals of ice-skating and to encourage continued participation in skating as an enjoyable lifetime sport. Some examples of the elements taught in the Basic Eights are gliding, swizzles, stroking, crossovers, stops, three-turns, mohawks, jumps, and spins.

Hockey 1-4

These classes have been designed to fulfill the basic needs of those interested in hockey skating. Some of the elements covered in this section are forward and backward crossovers, stroking, mohawks, hockey turns, and hockey stops. This program will prepare boys and girls with skating skills they need for the youth hockey leagues. All elements will be taught without a stick or puck as proper skating techniques are the primary focus of the classes.

Adult 1-4

The adult curriculum is designed for the beginner adult skater. It is designed to promote physical fitness, improve balance and coordination while learning proper skating techniques. Divided into four levels, adult skaters will progress at an individual rate while being challenged and motivated.

Moves in the Field/Footwork

Moves in the Field/Footwork will help develop all basic fundamental edges and turns, while emphasizing edge quality, extension, quickness and power. The footwork part of the class will use the skills learned from Moves in the Field to develop exciting and impressive sequences of turns, edges, swings, and toe pick spins while maintaining proper posture and body position.

Stroking/Interpretive

This class will teach efficiency of pushing and direction for maximum speed and control to music. Presentation and expression are also emphasized as are deep edges. Join this class for a good workout.

Trails In Santa Fe

Santa Fe has a variety of trails and public paths that encourage outdoor recreation and promote fitness. Some trails link parks and other destinations, creating greenways through densely developed areas. Others, such as the Rail Trail, extend well into Santa Fe County through less developed landscape. So, put on your walking, running, or hiking shoes - or get out your bike or skates - and take advantage of the trails that Santa Fe has to offer.

Santa Fe Beautiful
2004 – 2005 Events

September 9, 2004 Zozobra (Litter Free Event)

Santa Fe Beautiful along with volunteers hand out trash bags at this event. People are asked to place their trash in the bags and then after the event city crews pick up the bags. This helps to keep the park clean during the event and easier to clean up afterwards.

September 25, 2004 Trek for Trash Fall Clean-Up Day

Volunteers young and old come out to assist in a citywide clean up of our streets, parks arroyos and school grounds. A thank you luncheon is provided to those volunteers who assisted in the clean-up.

October 16, 2004 Santa Fe Beautiful Wine Tasting Fundraiser

This is a fundraiser for Santa Fe Beautiful Programs.

Nov. 5 – 7, 2004 Recycle Santa Fe Art Festival (American Recycles Day Event)

The festival includes a recycled art market, exhibit and fashion contest. There is also music, food and children's activities. The intended result of the Festival is to educate New Mexicans about waste reduction in a fun and creative venue; to stimulate local economic development, and ultimately reduce the amount of waste disposed in the landfill. All activities during this 3-day event are open to the public for free and are held in conjunction with America Recycles Day activities in November across the state and country.

2005

January 3 – 7, 2005 Curb Your Tree

Santa Fe Residents can recycle their Christmas Trees during this week and the City of Santa Fe picks them up and mulches them. The mulch is then given to City of Santa Fe residents.

March 2005 Arbor Day (month) Events

During the month of March – Santa Fe Beautiful plants trees with schools in our school grounds, parks and city facilities.

March 26, 2005 Parks & Recreation Department Easter Event (Litter Prevent Activities)

Immediately after the Easter Event - participants (children) assist in post-event litter clean-up. Every child that brings a bag of trash will receive a ticket for a chance to win great grand prizes. This event has become a huge success because it promotes awareness of litter prevention at an early age.

City of Santa Fe Recycling Program

Santa Fe Beautiful along with the City of Santa Fe helps coordinate recycling for city offices.

What's New at Parks & Recreation

Gilda Montano, Santa Fe Beautiful Coordinator hosts this show on Channel 8 to advertise upcoming events within the Parks & Recreation Department and other entities. This television program is shown on a weekly basis.

Trash to Treasures Orta Vez

In conjunction with the Santa Fe New Mexican – Santa Fe Beautiful has a weekly column in Sunday's Focus publication that advertises items that people would like to given away or requesting to the general public. All items are free. This program helps save landfill space and helps some residents or non profit organizations who otherwise cannot afford to purchase these items.

Adopt-A-Median Program

This in one of our most visible, successful and oldest programs in our continuing effort to keep Santa Fe clean and beautiful. Through partnerships with business owners and individuals along with the City of Santa Fe Parks & Recreation Department we landscape and maintain over 200 medians in the City of Santa Fe.

Understanding Santa Fe's Desert Vegetation

This is a working draft list of plants that can reasonably be expected to grow acceptably in the Santa Fe area, given proper siting and care. Some of these have limited availability at this time, though supplies are increasing. There are others that might grow equally well here, but they have been excluded at this time due to their even more limited availability.

This list will be reviewed and modified periodically as potentially useful plants are introduced or become more readily available, and new information about plants currently on the list is developed. This list is not intended to be used to limit plant selection, but to serve as a guide for those who want to know more about reasonable choices for this area.

For those who wish to experiment with plants not listed here, we urge you to find out all you can about the plants' expected hardiness, cultural requirements, and potential problems.

The plants are listed in columns by Latin name, common name, water needs, cautions, and comments. When the terms "cultivars", "selections" and "forms" are used, it indicates that there is more than one variety of that type of plant sold.

Water needs are given for most plants as a range, since soil type, microclimates, type of irrigation, and many other variables can affect the water requirements of plants on a specific site. The irrigation frequencies suggested are only a guideline meant to be used after new plantings are well established, typically from the third season on. Large trees may need more frequent supplemental irrigation for additional years before these guidelines apply. The suggested watering frequencies are meant to be applied during dry spells when there is no significant natural precipitation.

The categories are as follows: VL (Very Low) is for plants that require little or no supplemental irrigation to grow acceptably once they are established. Most of these are native to our environment.

The next category, L (Low), is for plants that need some supplemental irrigation to remain pest and disease free and reach their highest potential in the landscape. They grow well with relatively infrequent irrigation, typically every three to four weeks through the growing season.

The third category, M (Moderate), is for plants that need regular irrigation to grow well here, typically every week or two during the growing season. These plants may also need supplemental irrigation monthly during dry winters.

For most landscape applications, we recommend using plants with water requirements in these first three categories.

The last category, H (High), is for plants that typically grow in areas with much more natural precipitation or available groundwater than is common in Santa Fe. These plants should be used sparingly, and only in areas where site variables like runoff patterns, mulch applications and shade/wind protection can help lessen their water needs, or in streamside areas where water is naturally available. They will usually need to be watered at least once a week during the growing season and at least once a month in dry winters to stay healthy.

Caution categories are listed to help alert plant buyers to potential problems that certain plants may develop, especially if they are not sited in favorable locations and maintained in good health. The importance of matching the plant to the conditions of the site cannot be overstated; the right plant in the right place is naturally healthier and more pest and disease resistant. If you want to use plants with cautions applied to them, investigate what is meant by the caution category and what that means in regard to using the plants on your site.

The caution categories are as follows: "Al" stands for alkaline-sensitive; these plants may develop iron and other trace mineral deficiencies and grow very poorly (or even die) in soils which are highly alkaline.

Parks & Recreation

Suggested Woody Plants

“Exp” is used to note plants considered experimental in Santa Fe. Some of these are new introductions to the nursery trade, while others have not been used widely enough or long enough in the Santa Fe area to know what their cultural limits and needs are here. The next caution category is labeled “I” for plants which tend to be invasive under certain conditions. Though many plants naturally spread to form clumps, these plants can easily get out of hand in certain locations and crowd out or overrun other plants near them. Some of these are useful for stabilizing slopes and rough areas, but they must be sited very carefully.

The notation “P/D” stands for pest/disease potential. Plants marked with this notation have a high likelihood of developing problems with significant pests and/or diseases when they are grown under less than optimal conditions.

Plants marked “Sh” are those which either grow naturally in shadier environments or are easier to grow here when they are planted where they receive some shade, especially afternoon shade. The plants in this group also typically do best in locations where they are sheltered from high winds and heat-reflecting surfaces. These are not plants to be used in hot, dry environments.

The Comments section includes other information useful in helping to decide whether or not to use certain plants. Compiled by Tracy Neal. Consulting Horticulturist. Santa Fe, New Mexico.
